

Dear Valued Customer - Welcome to our first newsletter of 2023!

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

The Great Awakening certainly is a roller-coaster ride, it is both an exciting and interesting time to be alive! In times of uncertainty and change, it can be very challenging remaining focused and positive. Whenever you become consumed in uncertainty, indecision, worry or insecurity, try focusing on what you can be sure of, and areas in life where you feel secure and feel love – even if this is just looking at a picture or colour that you love, or focusing on the certainty of your breathing. It is such a simple practice, but it can really help!

This month we have 3 great Special Offers for your New Year Detox – AND a new catalogue, plus news of an exciting training course!

OFFER 3: MAGNESIUM FLAKES, CHANGE OF SOURCE PLUS 10% OFF:

A few months ago we switched from Dead Sea source Magnesium Chloride Flakes to Zechstein source due to our supplier switching sources. The latter is often claimed to be slightly superior to Dead Sea origin, however we have never seen any scientific evidence that proves this and therefore we felt the difference in price was not warranted. We have sold Dead Sea origin since 2009 on our website and it has been a firm favourite of ours and many customers, it has also received a lot of 5* reviews on the Amazon listing and has been listed as an ‘Amazon Recommends’ product on many occasions.

However, since moving to the Zechstein source we have received numerous requests for the original Dead Sea source and our Amazon sales have also dropped. We have also found quality control issues and difficulty in tubbing the larger sized flakes.

We are now pleased to say that we have found another supplier, and have reverted back to our favourite, the ever-popular Dead Sea origin, with immediate effect!

Just for your information and reassurance, while we had both sources in stock, we muscle-tested to see if there was any energetic benefit to the different sources, and found that there was no difference at all.

Link to the product is HERE, a link to our Magnesium article "The Magnesium Deficiency Epidemic" (also featured as a chapter in Danielle's book) in our Shop Blog is HERE and a video of Lloyd and Danielle discussing Magnesium and how to make magnesium oil for less than £1 is HERE

SPECIAL OFFER FOR JANUARY: 10% OFF ALL SIZES OF MAGNESIUM FLAKES!

Many days we are left with uncollected courier parcels and delayed deliveries, and we have made a formal complaint. We sincerely hope this is not having too much of an impact on our service to you, but rest assured it is in hand.

OTHER NEWS

TRAINING IN GERMAN NEW MEDICINE (GNM) NOW AVAILABLE!

When browsing our website, you will see various references to the Biological Laws, GNM, German New Medicine or as it is sometimes called, Germanische Heilkunde (GHK). The Biological Laws are a heavily suppressed aspect of biology that, in a nutshell, proves with irrefutable science and research (by a German doctor called Dr Hamer), that disease is a purposeful survival 'program' that is triggered by a trauma that gives us a shock. This shock triggers biological changes in the body, the purpose of which enable us to cope with the trauma, and when the trauma has passed the body will reverse the biological changes, bringing it back to normal (ie. it is designed to heal itself). Introductory videos, articles and case studies can be found on Danielle's blog website: www.DanielleBryant.co.uk and we also have an introductory article in our Shop Blog HERE

John Holledauer was tasked to translate Dr Hamer's original lectures into English and has recently released a 4-year training program in GNM/GHK for anyone wanting to take this further. More details, along with many more free videos and information, can be found on the GHK Academy website here: www.ghk-academy.info

Thank you very much for supporting our small family business.

We would like to wish all of our customers an abundance of Peace, Health and Happiness throughout 2023.

With love & best wishes

Danielle, Lloyd and the Shop Holistic team!
